

THROW AN OSCAR PARTY

Set the scene for an elegant A-list dinner party with stunning glassware, opulent dishes and glam accessories.

PHOTOS MIKE DAINES STYLIST JOANNA THORNHILL

Tabletop items from left to right: Black Tie Touch decanter, £120, at The Conran Shop; Long platter with curled end by Indigo Flair, £65, at Not on the High Street; Randolph double champagne cooler, £375, at Ralph Lauren; Clear vases, similar available at LSA; Cisne swan bowl, £20, at Zara Home; Petal plates, £40 for a set of six, at Reiko Kaneko; Star tall candlestick, £1,225, and De Vecchi small star candlesticks, £3,064, for two, all at Thomas Goode; Metallic taper candles in gold, £6 for a pack of four, at Shearer Candles; Ploermel champagne bucket, £50, at Zara Home; Tablecloth, made in Lion stone, £105 per m; Table runner, made in Bark walnut, £74 per m, both at De Le Cuona; Gold Posh Poppers, £5 for a pack of 10, Divine Gems (scattered over table), £6 per pack, both at Talking Tables. Place setting items: Dahlia placemats in gold and silver, £10 each, at The Conran Shop; Midas 24-piece gold cutlery set, £155, at Heal's; Metallic dinner plate, £160 each, and dessert/soup bowl, from £140, at Thomas Goode; Bistro napkins, £15 each, at Ralph Lauren; Mother of Pearl napkin rings, £180 for a set of six, Saint Louis Excess goblet in grey, £354 each, Saint Louis Bubbles champagne flute, £93 each, all at Thomas Goode.

